

Preparing for Horizon Europe: Embedding Social Sciences and Humanities in technical energy project proposals

Tuesday 1 December 2020, 10:00-13:00 CET
Online event via ZOOM

10:00 Welcomes and introduction to Energy-SHIFTS

*Chris Foulds, Global Sustainability Institute, Anglia Ruskin University.
Ivan Matejak, European Energy Research Alliance.*

10:10 European Commission keynote speeches

Chair: Rosie Robison, Global Sustainability Institute, Anglia Ruskin University.

- Hélène Chraye, European Commission, Head of Unit Clean Energy Transition, DG Research & Innovation
- Mark Van Stiphout, European Commission, Deputy Head of Unit Innovation, clean technologies and competitiveness, DG Energy

10:30 Stakeholder perspectives: Why does SSH matter for energy transitions?

Chair: Tiina Koljonen, VTT Technical Research Centre of Finland.

- Natalia Morazzo, Agency for the Promotion of European Research, Net4Society
- Stanislas d'Herbemont, REScoop, Chair of BRIDGE's Customer Engagement working group

10:45 Lessons from Horizon 2020: Recommendations for mainstreaming SSH in project proposals

Chair: Ivan Matejak, European Energy Research Alliance.

- Evaluating quality of SSH integration - Chris Foulds, Global Sustainability Institute, Anglia Ruskin University
- Managing proposal evaluation - Adas Pangonis, European Commission Innovation Networks Executive Agency
- Policy priorities driving funding opportunities - Liliane Banczyk, European Commission DG Energy

11:20 Introducing breakout group tasks

Chair: Rosie Robison, Global Sustainability Institute, Anglia Ruskin University.

11:30 Comfort break

11:45 Breakout group discussions

12:40 Plenary reflections and sum-ups

Chair: Rosie Robison, Global Sustainability Institute, Anglia Ruskin University.

- Gerd Schönwälder, European Commission DG Research & Innovation.

13:00 Finish